Sharon, Massachusetts

It's hard to believe that the graduation we longed for four years is finally here. Each year seemed like forever, but now they have faded away and we are left with nothing but memories . . .

seniors 94

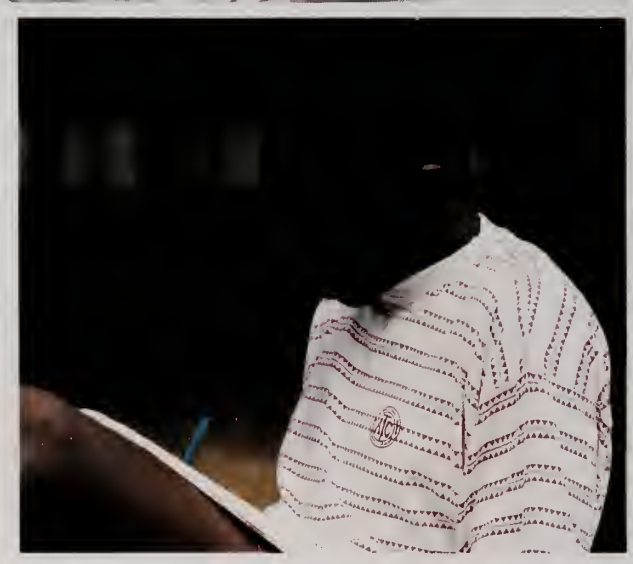
"Just go past the elevators and take a left at the pool."

Unsure of ourselves, we scampered nervously through the halls trying to steer clear of the upperclassmen while finding the way to our next class.

"Psych — No school!"

The teachers' strike took us by surprise. The extra five day vacation gave us the opportunity to relax while our teachers fought their battle with the School Committee.



"I feel like a nothing."

Sophomore year was a transitional period. We no longer had the excitement of adjusting to a new school, nor were we the leaders of the school.

seniors 94

"We definitely should have beaten the Seniors in the Halloween Assembly — Fix!"

We demonstrated our spirit on Halloween when we dressed up in costumes and challenged the Seniors for the title of "Most-Spirited Class." Spirit Week, culminating in a class volleyball game; class rings; drivers' ed.; and an end-of-the-year trip to Surf Coaster capped off the sophomore year.

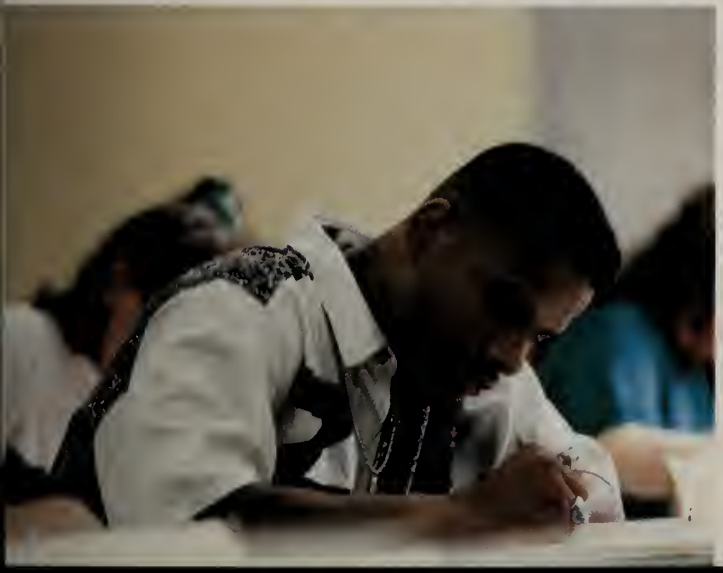
seniors 94

"Stress!"

Along with more maturity came added pressures, the pressures of PSAT's, SAT's, and Achievement Tests.

"Junior year is the most important."

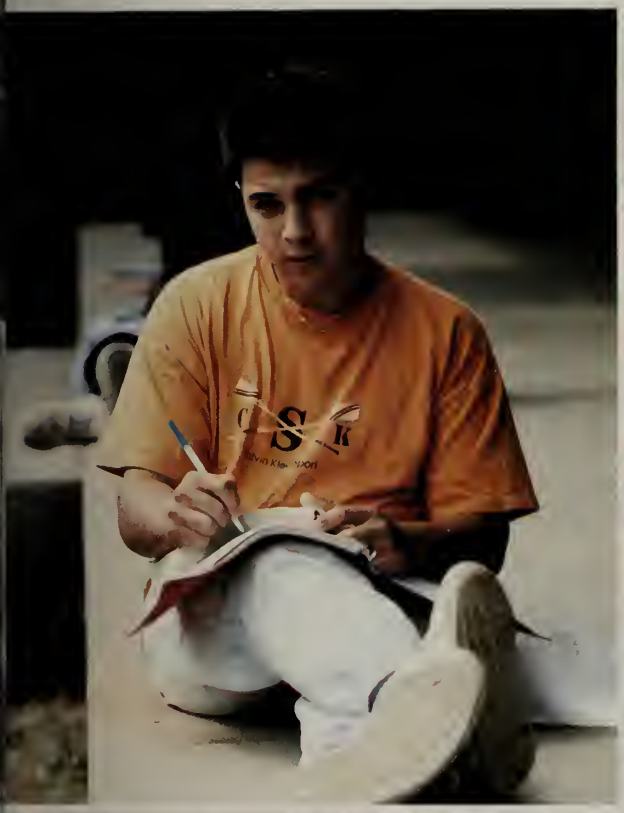
Our days were filled with guidance workshops and college fairs as we searched for the college of our dreams.



seniors 91

"Keep off the streets . . . I just got my license!"

Junior year wasn't all work, however. With our licenses came the freedom that we had longed for. This new independence finally made us feel like the upperclassmen that we were.



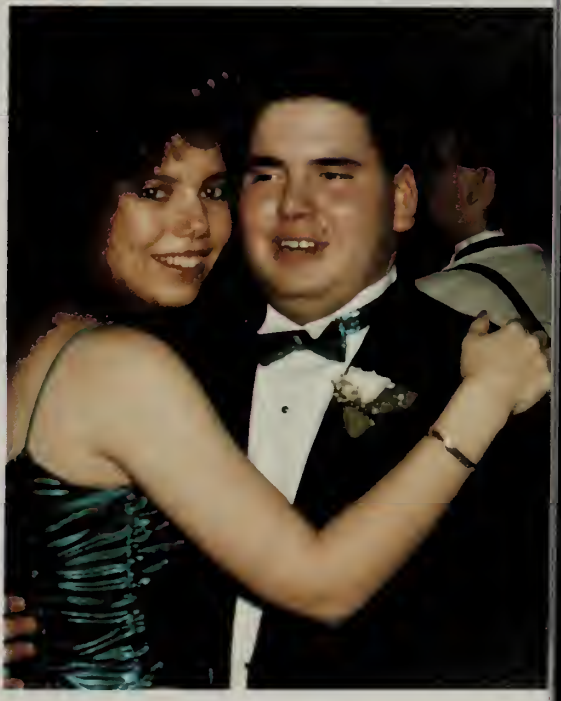
"Our junior prom's gonna be in the gym?"

Weary from the school year, our spirits were lifted by the junior prom and our class trip at Rocky Point.

"Our prom lasted a week instead of a night."

Despite mixed emotions about the location of our prom, many of us spent countless hours decorating the gym with lights and balloons and streamers, as our prom was the first in years to be held at school. This not only served to bring the class together, but also made the night more special.

"It was beautiful! It brought tears to my eyes."



On May 19 we danced through the night. Prom king Tony Lumley and prom queen Inga Rozinsky and her court, Karanetta Boykins, Andrea Primack, Jill Bjorkholm, and Linda Riemer led the dance to our prom song, "Time to Remember."

"We never thought we'd pull it off, but we did."

"At last! We rule the school!"

With exuberance, we entered our homerooms for the final year. Three years of hard work had finally paid off. We were Seniors! Senior year wasn't all fun and games, though. Ahead of us were long hours of brooding over college application essays. As soon as those were finished, all that was left to do was . . . WAIT. Before the year was over, there was some disappointment but also much excitement as college acceptance letters were received.

Senior year is finally over and our time at Sharon High School has come to an end. But the friendships that we have made over the past twelve years will last a lifetime . . . as will the memories of the times we laughed together; the football games, the dances, that special anticipation, nervousness before SAT's, our prom, class day, and finally the graduation that we all worked so hard for. Senior year is finally over, but it's not an ending, it's a beginning.

dedication and appreciation

dedication

In our Junior year, along with a heightened sense of class spirit came an old friend who became our new class advisor: Mr. Pane. He demonstrated his dedication and devotion to our class time and time again. He was constantly there to give input and advice about floats, dances, and proms. In the classroom, his unique style of teaching provided a refreshing hiatus from other conventional teaching methods. For these reasons and myriad others, we the Class of 1991 would like to dedicate this yearbook to our advisor, Mr. Phillip A. Pane. Thanks again Mr. Pane.

We the Class of 1991 would like to show our appreciation to Mr. Michael Levine. As vice-principal and administrative liason to the student body, he was forever there to listen patiently to our ideas. He always had a suggestion or two for us when our brainstorming had proved fruitless. He was caring, giving, and concerned. Mr. Levine, we couldn't have done it without your help.

The 1990 Sharon girls' Tennis team was unstoppable! The season ended with a record of18-1. The team made it past the Hockomock champs to the semi-finals in the South Sectionals. The team was lucky to have the great players it did. With co-captains Bethann Barry and and Sharon Schlesinger at solid first and second singles respectively, and with the super first doubles team of Marci Levine and Debbie Katz, the 1991 season promises to be even better.

The 1989-90 Sharon High Eagles Boys' tennis team played a competitive and aggressive game as usual. So much so that they were undefeated in the Hockomock League and lost only in the Semi-Finals at the South Section in the State Tournament. Senior Jon Shaer contributed to the team immensely, as did juniors Andy Lipsky and Greg Nathan and Adam Ferrin filling in at both singles and doubles. The team has racked up 88 consecutive victories over the past five seasons. A large part of the credit for this goes to the skill and enthusiasm of the team and the outstanding coaching of Ron Holt.

The 1990 track team was fortunate to have a marvelous array of excellent runners in a variety of field events. Seniors Andy Kaplan, John Sawyer, Scott Rankin, Eric Einstein, and Adam Kaufman will be returning next year, along with sophomores Mike Yutzy, John Lloyd, John Lehman, and Brad MacDonald, thus the track team shows great promise for the future.

The 1990 girls' track team, although small in nu[illegible]er, were large in spirit. Because they could not offer strong competition with such a small team, it was difficult for them to rack up a strong record. Outstanding performances by Adrianne Kaplan, Charlene Russo, and Aaryn Kay found it all worth while.

The 1990 softball season was a tough one, but it served as a much needed learning experience. Through hard work, determination, and spirit, the team was able to handle any situation. Seniors Rebecca Weiner, Danielle Mogolesko, Stephanie Sweetman, Jody King, Kim Lisowski, and Sara Morandi should lead the Eagles to a more successful season in 1991.

Although Coach Joel Peckham had his doubts about the young, inexperienced Varsity baseball squad, his skepticism was soon dismissed. The Eagles finished the 1990 season with a respectable 8-12 record, beating every team at least once, excluding Franklin. The season provided a preview of the young talent of the future. With a host of returning starters, the Eagles should improve their record and make a run for the state tourney in the 1991 season.

The golf team was very young this year with four of the six spots being first year varsity players. The first and second spots were shared by senior co-captains Josh Fink and Rick Clemons. Seniors Eric Kramer and P.J. Whritenour played well for their first year on the team. Sophomores Geoff Waller and Thor Van Vaerenwyck filled the third and fourth spots while juniors Brad Walter and Mike Rodman held the fifth and sixth positions. While the team's final record was not all that they had hoped for, they are showing promise for the coming years. Freshmen Bob Gelormini, Mike Rose, Jon Starr, and J.P. Katz are showing strong potential for the future.

Faced with an extremely competitive Hockomock League, Coach Alan Howie and the boys soccer varsity soccer team demonstrated their desire and determination in each of their seventeen games. Although the team just barely fell short of qualifying for the post-season tournament, they played with intensity until the last whistle was blown. This was seen in their defeat of the second place Canton team and a strong Franklin team (which had not been beaten by Sharon in over 15 years.) The team's young, spirited players were held together with a strong network of only five seniors: co-captains Jon Rabinowitz and Brian Grossman, half-backs Jon Shaer and Miguel Agliozzo, and forward Robert Garf. With the loss of only five seniors and the abundance of fresh, young talent, the boys varsity soccer team will no doubt be a formidable contender next season.

This year, the girls soccer team finished their fourth consecutive year in the Hockomock League as a varsity team. Led by seniors Keryn Goldstein, Bethann Barry, and Amy Lieberman on offense, and Stephanie Weinstein and Kira Myerson on defense, the team worked hard yet was able to have a lot of fun in the process. Although the team struggled throughout the season with a 3-11-2 record, they never ceased to play to their utmost potential. On behalf of co-captains Keryn Goldstein and Rebecca Weiner, and the rest of the graduating seniors, we wish the girls soccer team and Coach Jon Abrahamson the best of luck in the future.

When the boys cross country team began practice in August, they knew tough workouts loomed ahead. Eventually, these difficult practices proved invaluable as the team steadily improved. They ended the regular season with a 4-4 record. Sophomore Jon Lehman led the team with three 1st place finishes. Senior Captain Dan Goldstein had an outstanding year. His fellow seniors Deepak Reddy, Andy Kaplan, and James Tseng, and juniors Brian Goodman, Tim Krauss, and Ajai Mathews also made strong contributions, as did four promising freshman. The team is anticipating an even stronger year in 91.

The 1990 girls cross country had a satisfying season. Although their record was only 2-6, the girls worked hard, ran their hearts out, and had a good time. The team was led by seniors Becky Simpson, Sharon Schlessinger, Linda McMaster, and Debbie Katz. Outstanding performances from sophomores Helene Rubin and Beth Mann, and freshman Meera Mathurs were of great value to the team. Next year the team looks to be much improved under the patient coaching of Mr. Norris.

Although the field hockey team did not end their season with an outstanding record of victories, it played hard and well under the terrific leadership of co-captains Jody King and Sally Rosenthal, and seniors Jodi Goldman, Joanna Vouriotis, Stephanie Sweetman, and goalie Debbie Martin. The team was able to keep up its high spirit as it competed in an exceptionally strong league. The highlight of the season was when they beat Franklin (4-2) in their last game. Thanks to Coach Decas and Coach Eagan, and good luck to next year's Sharon Eagles.

The Sharon High football team ended the 1990 season with three wins and seven losses. Records, however, can be very deceiving, for the Eagles showed their true grit by ending the season with an 18-14 win over the Oliver Ames Tigers during the annual Thanksgiving Day game. This exciting win broke the eight year long Thanksgiving game losing streak for the Eagles. The team was led by a strong nucleus of experienced senior players: Dave Magit, Greg Freedman, Adam Kaufman, Jon Sawyer, Lajuane Harvey, Tony Lumley, Mike Tkach, Tien Tieu, Amin Britt, and Dietrich Bradshaw. With a complement of promising underclassmen and determination and will, the 1990 Eagles football team was a strong competitor in the highly talented Hockomock League.

The girls' basketball team got off on a winning note with a record of 8-2. The team started the season with two non-league wins against Newton-South and moved on to be a solid competitor in the league. This year's team was fortunate enough to provide Coach Allman with his 200th win, a most deserved honor. Unlike past years, this team is balanced in talent and success; points and rebounds are distributed among all. The team's desire for success has taken them far, and will continue as the intensity of competition increases. With a strong starting team of tri-captains Keryn Goldstein, Rebecca Weiner, and Danielle Mogolesko, senior Lisa Taubman, and junior Aaryn Kay, along with strong playing by freshman sixth player Kelly MacDougall, the team rose to new heights in the '90-'91 season.

Seniors wish next year's team and Mr. Allman the best of luck for another successful season. We will miss you guys!

boys basketball

The Sharon Eagles, defending Hockomock League Champions and South Sectional State Finalists, came into this year's season with only hopes for the best and at this point find themselves with a 10-0 record, heading towards their second consecutive league title. Tri-captains Jeff Scott, Gary Henry, and Peter Caperneros, along with seniors Adam Shrager and Albert Cortina, provided the leadership that enabled to finish up the season as league champions. Under Coach Cronin's guidance and with the undying spirit of the Eagle's fans, the team hopes to conclude their triumphant season with a strong showing at the State Tournament.

The gymnasts led by senior co-captains, Marcia Fleischman and Charlene Russo, got things moving despite numerous injuries. The team's eight gymnasts, as opposed to last year's thirteen, defeated their nemesis, the Canton Bulldogs, and a league title could be forthcoming. Best of luck to juniors Alyssa Azer, Laurie Gilman, and Jessica Schneider.

The Sharon Eagles have come a long way with their wrestling. But this year may very well have been a turning point for the squad. Under the wings of the new coaching staff of Rob O'Donnell and Assistant Coach Joe Spruce, the Eagles have made tremendous improvements. As for this year's varsity squad, there was a lot of new talent. The squad was composed of a large number of sophomores and juniors including Neil Salon, Adam Mayer, Eli Silberzweig, Larry Rubin, David Breslof, Mark Wolkon, and Mark Roback. The team was led by two year captain Mark Messina and four other seniors: Andy Kaplan, Jason Kadish, Rick Clemon, and Brian Mushlin. The teams hard work and devotion showed at the end of the season when the team made their way to the Sectionals. The team is looking forward to its upcoming years and the young talent that is likely to emerge.

Halloween at Sharon High School, while never dull, was exceptional this year. With costumes ranging from Mickey and Minnie to a royal flush of senior girls, to Robin Hood, a tube of tooth paste and the various months of the calendar year, there was plenty to see and admire as these splendid outfits roamed the halls. The fabulous day ended with a very spirited assembly where the class of '91 showed their awesome power by winning the spirit award.

Not even the 0° weather with a wind chill factor of minus 40° could ruin the festive atmosphere of Homecoming '90. The beautiful Homecoming Queens and their escorts rode majestically atop four colorfully adorned floats. The Homecoming Queens and Kings were seniors Kim Lisowski and Peter Capernaros, Beth Calish and Andy Lipsky for the juniors, Tracey Foley and Pete Rosen for the sophomores, and Maeci Egan and Scott Frye for the freshman class. The juniors took the blue ribbon in the "best float" category with the seniors in a close second. Unfortunately, the football team also came in a close second losing to Mansfield in a hard fought battle.

The entire student body assembled in the colorful, highly decorated gym for the annual Thanksgiving pep rally. Senior Class President Jody King led the class in a strong and vocal show of support. After the introduction of the graduating football players, the cheerleaders dazzled the crowd with a number of exciting routines. They were led by co-captains Inga Rozinsky, Kim Lisowski and Dina Seronick. The highlight of the rally was a number of slick moves performed by a chunky group of cheerleaders who under their short skirts and bulky sweaters turned out to be none other than Jeff Scott, Josh Fink, Jon Shaer, Rob Garf, Adam Shrager and Gary Henry. The rally's exuberant spirit paid off the next day as the Eagles trounced O.A. with an 18-14 victory.

This year, Mrs. Dennis wanted to choose a play which was not only challenging, but also one that was unusual. She succeeded. "The Martian Chronicles," and adaptation of Ray Bradbury's stories, was a grand success which intrigued many in the audience. On Saturday night, the second performance of the show, seven minutes before curtain there was a black-out. Panic struck. Should we perform without lights and sound? Could we pull it off? Luckily, power came back on. The drama club hit the stage and put on the play which received the following compliment from a member of the administration: "Great job, guys. I didn't understand some of it, but you did it well."

For four years we had waited for a chance to kick off our shoes and raise a little . . . We had our chance on Saturday June 16, 1990, when we headed out for the beach and Rockypoint Amusement Park for sun, sand, and fun. The drive to the beach was enlivened by food fights between cars. Although the air was cool at the beach and we didn't stay too long, it didn't chill our spirits. We headed to Rockypoint, went on a variety of rides, and posed enthusiastically for the camera. All in all it was a terrific day which will not be soon forgotten.
